$100 Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, at Farmville, about the 12th June last, a bright Mulatto Man—MAT—about twenty eight years of age, of low stature, walks badly, being inclined to be box-ankled—with a bushy head of hair. No other marks recollected. He is a shoe maker by trade, and, having carried off his tools, it is thought he may be lurking about some of the shops about Richmond, as he was seen not many days after he, left here going in that direction—or about Lynchburg, as he was raised in or near that place. I will give the above reward if taken out of the state, or $25 if taken in the State. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received.

VALCOULON FOR SALE.

VALCOULON FOR SALE.

THIS valuable Estate lies in Kanawha county, on the South side of Kanawha river, about one mile below Coal Bridge, and twelve miles below Charleston, the turnpike road from Covington to Guyandoste passing through it, and contains 4,000 acres, about 500 of which are river bottom of the first quality, at this time in a high state of cultivation and improvement, and in the very best condition. The up land is unsurpassed by any in the county in fertility of soil and advantages of situation, and is heavily wooded with valuable tumber, with the exception of about 500 acres, which is cleared and well taken in grass. About 1,500 acres of the wood land is under fence, affording fine luable timber, with the exception of about 200 acres, which is cleared and well taken in grass. About 1,500 acres of the wood land is under fence, affording fine wood land pasture and range for stock. On this tract there is a good flour and corn mill, with a saw mill attached, both of which are very productive. The mansion, which is spacious and commodious, containing twelve rooms, constructed in the best manner, is tastefully and elegantly finished, and beautifully situated, and affords every convenience that can minister to the ease and comfort of a family. The yard and garden are extensive, and have been improved, at much expense, with ornamental trees, shrubbery, &c. The other improvements consist of a brick kitchen, weaving house, laundry, smoke-house, dairy, ice-house, bathhouse, and, indeed, every necessary house required about a large establishment, together with overseers' houses, barns, com-houses, stables, carriage-houses, wagon houses, blacksmiths' and sheemaker shops, and houses for the accommodation of fifty or sixty negroes, &c., all of the best kind, and arranged in the most convenient manner, and at this time in good repair. There is, also, a commodious brick hotel situated on the turnpike road, at the distance of a quarter of a mile from the mansion house, containing eight rooms, a venient manner, and a this time in good repeated on the turnpike road, at the distance of a quarter of a mile from the mansion house, containing eight rooms, a large saloon, with porches on both sides of it, together with all necessary stables and out buildings, which is an excellent stand for a tavern, and which brings in a good rent.

This estate, taken altogether, perhaps one of the most desirable in Virginia, will be sold low, and the payments inade easy to the purchaser. Possession will be given at the end of next year—1849—when the first payment will be made.

Also for sale, another very desirable tract immediately below the other, lying on the Kanawha river, containing 500 acres, about 80 of which are river bottom, cleared and in cultivation. The buildings are a good hewn log house, with four rooms, kitchen, good barn and stable, ice house, &c; and also another tract on Brown's Creek, three miles from the Kanawha river, and adjoining the first tract of 4,000 acres. This tract contains 2,000 acres, about 50 acres of rich creek bottom cleared and in cultivation, with excellent fences, a cleared and in cultivation, with excellent fences, agood log house, and all necessary out houses; and adjoining this, again, 2,000 acres of wood land, well time

I also offer for sale one undivided half of 6,000 acres I also offer for sale one undivided half of 6,000 acres, lying on Coal river—18 miles from its mouth at the mouth of Bull creek. On this tract there are about 100 acres of good river bottom now in cultivation. The upland is all rich, and heavily timbered. I have about 2,000 acres of improved land lying on Davis' creek, six milys from its mouth, rich and well timbered—all of which will be sold low, and payments made to suit purchasers.

SELECT SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, AT STAUNTON, VIRGINIA.

A PEW vacancies having occurred in this School, Mrs. Sheffey takes this method of calling the attention of the public to its character and design. The plan on which it has been conducted for the last three years, has proved eminently satisfactory and successful. The number of pupils being limited to twelve, Mrs. Sheffey, with the assistance of her daughters, is enabled to devote thorough attention to their moral and intellectual training. While Mrs. Sheffey is ready to acknowledge that considerations of a pecuniary nature first led her to enter upon this vocation, she hopes that in the prosecution of her work the true interests of her pupils will ever be the main-spring of her exertions.

The next session will commence on Wednesday, November 8th.

DR. BEACH'S AMERICAN PRACTICE OF MEDICINE, AND Family Physician.

Family Physiciam.

THE BOOK FOR THE PEOPLE!

PREPARED expressly for the use and benefit of Families, and of plain, common sense individuals.—
The collected and condensed experience and observation of ages. The most correct and scientific work of any of the kind in existence.
You cannot be ignorant of the teachings of this masterly and inestimable book, and yet live as you ought, or live out your full time on earth. The people will not take the mere assertion of any clergyman in the land to trust their souls upon; they must have the reasons, the why and wherefore. They will not buy property without knowing what it is, and what is the price, even to a yard of tage; but they will put their lives, the lives of their families and friends, into the hands of a Doctor, of whose qualifications, knowledge, skill or fitness they are totally incapable, from their gross ignorance, of forming any judgment whatever.—They swallow the Doctor's poisonous drug without inquiring what it is, what disease it is for, or what effect it is designed to produce. Only ef fools: When will ye be wise? How long will you be the slaves and dupes of your despotic family physician? Why pin, not your faith merely, but your very lives, upon another man's sleeves? Why not know for yourselves all matters appertaining to your life and health in this state of existence, as in the next? Why go out of the world with your blood on your own heads, or on the head of some other person? and all this because you will remain MISINFORMED on a subject which is of the highest earthly interest to yourselves and those who are dependent upon you for protection.

eternal life—to the cure of our moral diseases with only lone common sized volume in our hands, (THE BIBLE.) and with only learning enough to be able to read it, and yet our hodies are of such INFINITELY GREATER CONSEQUENCE that we cannot know how to avoid or to cure its maladles without a liberal education, a whole library of books, or a whole troop of Doctors at our heels? Oh, ye credulous dupes, who strain at a gnat and swallow a camel—who will higgle in a bargain for the fiftieth part of a cent, and at the same time turn your whole selves, wives and children, bodily into the hands of men whose action, whether for life or death, you are utterly incapable of attesting, by any known laws or rules, whether homan or divine. Wonder you are not all dead—especially those who swallow whole all that their family Doctors tell them in health, and give them in disease.

Now, for once in your ives, do a wise and rational action in regard to your corporeal well-being—go and buy DR. BEACH'S AMERICAN PRACTICE OF MEDICINE AND FAMILY PHYSICIAN, and it will teach you more in ONE HOUR than all the Family Physicians have taught the families in which they have practised in ten years. It is the object of Dr. BEACH'S FAMILY PHYSICIAN to enable you to understand your own diseases, their causes, symptoms and cure; and to qualify you to rely on your own resources.

Go ye, fellow citizens—ye men of thought, of freedom, of independence—ye parents, who wish to know fer yourselves how to live, to avoid disease—how to cure yourselves, your friends and chi'dren when ill—men and women, who wish to understand your own constitutions, the nature of all physical maladies, the true and efficient treatment, proved to be such by THIRTY YEARS PRACTICE IN TENS OF THOU-SANDS OF CASES—go ye to the Bookstores, and buy DR. BEACH'S great work. Glorious Triumph!

We cordially congratulate the Democracy up. on the election of that callant Whin-hated Republican, HENRY L HOPKINS of POWHATAN, at the special election on Thursday. He has triumphed over the unprecedented exertions of the counties to overthrow him. The vote is the largest ever given, and Col. Hopkins is elected by the handsome majority of (wenty-four, as fol-

B. W. Finney, Whig, - - - 238 The Democracy at Powhatan were most enthusiastic-and we have here an eloquent index of a glorious result in Old Virginia.

H. L. Hopkins, Dem., - - 262

OUR LAST APPEAL TO THE GLORIOUS DEMOCRACY. Our best exertions have been fearlessly made in defence of our long cherished principles how far we have succeeded, is a question for the friends of a great and good cause to decide. We call upon those who are now running up their time to near four score years, who from their early manhood have been steadily the sup porters of old fashioned Democracy, as they love their posterity and the glory of their country, to devote TUESDAY NEXT to the support of their country and their principles, by voting for Cass and Butler.

We call upon those, who are in the prime of manhood, to strain every nerve which a glorious cause can inspire, to carry with them to the polls the aged and infirm, who are ready to encounter any and all difficulties which a long ride may present, provided an opportunity is offered them to get to the poils to cast their votes

We appeal to the young, especially those who have just reached manhood, to emulate the conduct of their fathers and grandfathers, who, for a quarter to a half century, have been the pillars which have sustained their country's cause, and who now have the right, when viewing the glory and greatness of our country in the eyes of the world, to say this is the fruit of our labor in a righteous cause.

If there is one Democrat who hesitates to give ne day to his country, we beg him to imitate the example of the veteran Democrat, above seventy years of age, who rode from Campbell county to Powhatan to sustain the Democratic cause in giving his vote for Col. Hopkins.

The election of that sterling Democrat against the Whig host which Richmond sent forward to overwhelm him, shows what the lion-hearted Democracy can accomplish when fully roused .-His deleat would have been spread over the wide limits of the country, wherever the telegraph ex tends, as undoubted proof that this proud old commonwealth was to be driven from the rock of Democracy by the blast of ne-party Taylorism with Fillmore Abolitionism.

Let every Democrat press boldly on, and de-

Remember that your VOTE is the badge of you liberty—that your VOTE was bought for you by the best blood that was ever shed in battle upon the earth; by a seven years' war; by the wisdom of the most illustrious suges and the valor of the greatest warriors who ever lived —by the toils, and struggles, and heroism of a Washington! Kemember that your VOTE distinguishes you from all the other toiling nillions on the earth's surface; that it makes you a citizen instead of a subject; that it transfers you from something little better than a chattel, to a man; that it places you on an equality with emperors and kings.—Respect your Rights as a freeman and a sovereign, and VOTE on the 7th of November. Let no indolence, in difference, or any inducement, deprive you of your rete. We say to one and all, who may read these lines, VOTE!—[Richmond Republican.

The Republican has not over-estimated the importance of voting. We too call upon every man to cast his vote, and in doing so to recollect that he is voting for a public servant, and, in vindieating his sovereign power, his duty is to take care that he votes for those who will reflect his opinions. If he is a Democrat, he has the entire assurance that Cass and Butler will carry ou his wishes in sustaining the great principle of which he is the advocate. Every one of the seventeen Democratic Electors fully concurs in

It he is a Whig, the names of Alexander H. H. Stuart, Sam'l McD. Moore, Robt. E. Scott and the like, Federal Whigs, who make up the electoral ticket, guarantee the assurance that no thing will be left undone by such men to pull down the wise and beneficial measures which have been built up by the Democratic party, and in their stead erect a United States Bank, the horrors of which were but justly estimated by that good and great man Geo. Jackson.

A high protective Tariff, which will make few rich at the expense of the many and entail high taxes on the laboring people, and lessen the value of all farming productions, will also surely be pressed. The wire-workers of the United States Bank will put speculation on foot, and a few "gambling" speculators will grow rich while thousands will be ruined, and thus will the way be paved for another odious and corrupting Bankrupt Law, of which Mr. Fillmore was the advocate, and the repeal of which, he, doubtless, regarded as a most unwise act. The leaven of the unadulterated hatred of our adopted citizens, which marked the Administration of the elder Adams, is now infused into the Whig party by the unblushing coalition between the Whig and the "Native" parties. The latter holding as it will, in the event of the success of the Whig party, the balance of power in a Presidential contest, will force the Whig party to adopt their own idea (and that a most infamous one) of making our adopted fellow-citizens but so many serfs, by retusing to them, until they have been here twenty-one years, the right of suffrage, which every treeman so highly appreciates. Which of these two classes, we repeat, are most worthy to be heard in private and in public, where the people meet to hear the truth, concerning their public affairs?

But there is an object for which this clamor is raised just now, and for which it has been raised, on however slight foundation, by the Whig party, shortly before each election, which may escape the notice of most people, but which the leaders of that party never lose sig a of. As in 1840, they can mouth it magnifequently in the canvass about "proscribing prescription"-but they are sure, shortly before the election, to raise this clamor in order that, it successful, they may have this pretence, however shallow and ground less, for exercising, as they did in 1841, their power to reward their partizans by proscription, to which the history of our country afforded no parallel, and which Sylla or the Triumvirate could not surpass! This is the true reason for raising this clamor, and they need only one or two in stances of the exercise by men in office of the rights of American freemen, to givet hem a pretext for doing what they would certainly find some other pretext for doing, if they had not this. It is believed that now, as in 1810 and 1844, their committee in Washington has already revised the list of Federal offices and marked each Democratic name for proscription, it not appointed

One of their leading Whig journals has exclaimed "What a party is ours!" In a rather different sense, we may well make and the people of this country will make the same exclamation.

STEADY MEN! STEADY! CLOSE UP !" We adopt the following eloquent and soul-stiring appeal of one of the purest and most distinguished Republicans of North Carolina, which we find in the Raleigh Standard. One more blow and a glorious victory is won:

As Miller's glorious regiment, in one of the hardfought battles of the Niagara frontier, during the war of 1812, was leading up the hill in solid column against a dangerous battery crowning an grape from that battery went hurling through its er sounds were heard along the column save the cadenced footfalls of the men, and the deep, stern, short, quick commands of the platoon officers: "Steady men! steady! Close up!" These words of caution and encouragement were not thrown away on those dauntless men. They were "steady"-they did 'close up," coolly, steadily and firmly, every chasm made in their ranks by the sweeping shot of the enemy, till they rushed upon and carried the battery with a heroism unsurpassed in the annals of wartare.
